ACHIEVEMENTS & CONTRIBUTIONS”

Dear Friend,

We are pleased to announce the New Jersey Women in Law Enforcement (NJWLE) 2025 Annual Training Conference. This year's theme is Rise and Redefine, and is scheduled for March 12th and March 13th at iPlay America in Freehold, NJ. NJWLE is a professional and inclusive organization of active and retired officers, perpetually working to boost recognition of each other's achievements in the field.

The training aims to unite and empower law enforcement at all levels. It presents personnel with the opportunity to hone their skills and knowledge.

The NJWLE believes community support and cooperation are crucial to our continued success. The event is attended by over 500 law enforcement professionals and presents a unique opportunity to network or share information with attendees. We appreciate your support either as a sponsor or by donating tangible items.
